

Birmingham ATD invites you to tap into our local learning and talent development community as a chapter partner or meeting sponsor. Since 1953, Birmingham ATD has served as a trusted resource to hundreds of learning professionals. With a current chapter membership of nearly 100 professionals and 450 friends and contacts, partnering with Birmingham ATD expands and focuses your reach. In addition to as many as 12 monthly meetings each held each year, we also conduct interactive workshops, large annual events with nationally recognized guests, networking socials and community program support events. By partnering with Birmingham ATD, you are connecting your organization to a powerful network!
